See attached explanation. This is reimbursement to Randy for benevolence expenses paid on behalf of Casey and Paige Autry. Please prepare a check for $1667.88, made out to Randy Anderson. I will have one more receipt from Springhill Suites in Katy, later. Thanks Randy A.

Benevolence request from Casey Autry

March 31- I received a call from a member of the church living in Katy. She shared this story.

A lady , Casey Autry, and daughter, Paige Autry, were relocating to Katy from Tennessee. They are originally from Jackson, TN and attended the Jackson Christian Academy.

Before they arrived, they located a rental house through Zillow and prepaid the rent to someone claiming to be a Zillow agent.

They arrived in Katy to find out that the transaction was a fraud. They had transferred most of their available cash to the person claiming to be an apartment locater for Zillow.

Casey and Paige are members of the church, not necessarily faithful for the past few months, but nevertheless are members.

They were distraught and asked for help

I put them in the Springhill Suites in Katy for 4 nights while I located a more permanent place for them to stay, and purchased $150 in Dennys gift certificates for food. I also gave them two Brookshire Bros gift and Chik Fil A gift certificates.

On March 31, I paid for two weeks at Woodspring Suites and assured the ladies that they would not be living on the street and would not be without food.

Casey is now employed and Paige has job interviews again this week.

They have attended our services for two Sundays and are planning to continue.

Summary

Casey asked if we could help her with car payment and past due amount ($800).

She has not asked for additional help with housing but I assured her that we would provide room at Woodspring for two additional weeks.

I will submit my receipts later this week. But for now, please prepare a check for $800 made out to Casey Autry for car payment. Place it in my mailbox. I will deliver it to the desk at Woodspring.
