Sunday June 8, 2025

KJ Moore approached me after evening service and said that there was a man in the lobby asking for help. That he and Robert Vaughn had met with him in the lobby.

The man's name is Colby Gumfory. His bd is Oct 9, 1998 (26 yrs old)

Had a stroke 5 months ago. Face partially paralyzed. Came to the church in pair of shorts and tee shirt, broken shoes, unshaven and unbathed.

I met with Mr. Gumfory, KJ and Robert Vaughn to discuss his situation.

His story.

Born to Howard Klaus and his mother who were Never married. Spent a lot of his life in foster homes. Dad (Howard Klaus, 55yrs old) lives in Pattison, (38130 Klaus Lane) under hospice care, has terminal cancer, in a coma. Mom is in Beirut along with his half sister and brother. His religious background is a mixed bag of everything, but primarily Catholicism. We asked him what he knew about the Bible. He said his favorite chapter was Luke 15. Because the lost sheep parable reminded him of himself. Said he would like to study with us. We gave him a bible. Will follow up with study opportunity.

Was incarcerated for two years for assault with deadly weapon. (Corroborated by Robert Vaughn). Released in March. Not a current threat. There is more to his younger life as a foster child and incarceration story that is too personal to discuss here.

He was staying with a friend in the Brooks motel, but that relationship soured and he is now homeless, sleeping in a public park in Brookshire. No money. No food. No shelter. No ID. Brookshire Police officer (Giddings) brought him to Katy church along with a garbage bag full of dirty clothes. Claims to have a job interview at the Flying J truck stop in Brookshire on Monday June 9. After a lengthy discussion and questioning session, I decided to help the young man.

KJ and I gave him a food sack to share, took him to Brookshire Brothers for food, water and personal hygiene items. Then to Walmart for clothes and shoes. I gave him $40 for laundry and misc. items.

Paid for one week at the Executive Inn in Brookshire, across 359 from the Flying J truck stop. Total expenditure about $700.
