Please note that payment(s) received may be distributed to other outstanding guarantor balances.

Please note that this payment for services provided today may not be reflective of the total patient responsibility. We cannot always determine the exact amount you may owe until the service is completed and charges are added to your account. If we bill your insurance carrier, the patient responsibility will be determined after the insurance claim is paid and the insurance carrier identifies patient responsibility. Thank you for choosing Houston Methodist for your healthcare services.
