Food Supplies to Nigerian Congregations (thru Mona Kalu)

We have had discussions with sister Kalu regarding identified needs at her Mother's (Helen Ngwovia) Church congregation in rural Nigeria, and other smaller congregations in her home town area. Recently Mona had provided her little brother (Nnanna) with funds to buy needed basic food stuffs that includes rice, cooking oil, bouillon cubes, etc which are commonly used but in short supply. Supplies purchased from her recent personal contribution were distributed to several Christian families at her Mother's church and she received a number of notes expressing great appreciation.

Most of the congregations are very small but have basic food needs during this time (when many cannot work). I am recommending $900 to assist with purchase of rice with Mona being given the funds to arrange for the food purchases and distribution by her family in Nigeria.

Mona has previously discussed this need with John Baker and Ray and I believe this is also a good work opportunity with our missions and outreach.
