La'Toria Mays – Housing assistance request:

Background:

As noted from earlier requests, La'Toria Mays has continued to communicate with me on her personal job (and other) updates over the last few months.

Fortunately, her new job has gone very well and she is now certified with her employer and is now proceeding to establish a needed place of her own. As noted earlier, she has been living with her sister's family.

At this time, she will be relocating to her own apartment which is also needed for her to have a good work environment for her computer and internet connections. Her concern is that move-in costs have had an impact on her savings, and she has a minimal bank account balance after basic furniture costs and apartment start up deposits for utilities. The apartment complex requests a one-month deposit, and she will also need a balance on July (for her planned move in this next week). She has been able to finance some of her needed furnishings on a time payment for basic bedding and furniture items.

Generally, her income appears to be very stable at this time, and her salary should allow her to meet her car payment and other living expenses. I believe she will no longer need assistance if all continues as expected. She has a very positive attitude as well.

LaToria now still resides in Cypress area & her church attendance is primarily on line. I have encouraged her to consider re attending but she appears very concerned with COVID issues, etc.

Analysis/recommendation:

Her rent assistance request is as follows:

First month deposit: $1170;

Rent Balance due for July move in: $700

Total request: $1870

My recommendation is that this amount be approved.
